

CONTINUOUS

Written by

Myscreenplayz Production

<https://myscreenplayz.com>
0906 007 6325
info@myscreenplayz.com

CONTINUOUS

FADE IN:

INT. RAYMOND'S HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT 1

RAYMOND (40s) sits on a couch watching television as he hears the O.S. barks of his dogs.

He quickly turns off his light, opens his curtain slightly as he looks through the window.

He closes the curtain as he quickly runs out of the living room to the bedroom

INT. RAYMOND'S BEDROOM - CONTINUOUS 2

Raymond opens the door to see GENEVIEVE (30s) watching television.

RAYMOND

(scared)

Honey, please turn off the light and television.

GENEVIEVE

(upset)

What do you mean by that? We had a little misunderstanding and you left the --

RAYMOND

(cuts in)

-- This isn't the time for this; we're about to get robbed.

GENEVIEVE

The problem I have with you is that you find it difficult to think.

Raymond picks up the television remote as he turns off the television.

GENEVIEVE (CONT'D)

Why should you come here to tell me such when you can call the police?

He walks to the light switch and turns it off as he lies on the floor.

FADE OUT.

THE END